2. BASIS OF PURCHASE

2.1 An Order constitutes an offer which may be withdrawn, cancelled or amended by Company at any time before acceptance by Seller. Acceptance of an Order shall take place whenever expressly confirmed by Seller or by any other conduct consistent with acceptance. If Seller is unable to accept an Order, it shall notify Company promptly. Upon acceptance of the Order (and from such date), the Contract shall come into existence (the "Commencement Date").

2.2 THE SELLER'S ATTENTION IS DRAWN PARTICULARLY TO THIS CLAUSE: These Conditions apply to the Contract and to all supplies of Goods and/or Services by Seller under the Contract to the exclusion of any other terms and conditions the Seller seeks to impose or incorporate (whether under any acknowledgement or confirmation of order, quotation, specification, delivery note, invoice or otherwise), or which are implied by trade, custom, practice or course of dealing, provided that these Conditions and/or the Contract shall not supersede any existing services and/or goods agreement in place between and signed by both parties prior to the Commencement Date to the extent that the terms of these Conditions and/or Contract conflict or are inconsistent with the terms of such services and/or goods agreement. Seller's acceptance of the Order shall be deemed conclusive evidence of Seller's acceptance of these Conditions.

2.3 No conduct of Company shall constitute acceptance of any of Seller's terms. No obligations shall arise on the part of Company from: (a) any order confirmation or other documents issued by Seller which are not strictly in accordance with the corresponding Order; (b) order confirmations confirming verbal orders unless such order confirmations have been subsequently expressly accepted by means of a duly signed written document issued by Company; or (c) any request for offers or quotations issued by Company.

2.4 If any Order and/or Specifications (if any) provisions are inconsistent with these Conditions, these Conditions will prevail unless the Condition to be overridden is specifically identified and the intention for the Order and/or Specifications to amend these terms is clearly expressed.

3.1 The price of the Goods and/or Services shall be as stated in the Order, or, where the price has been omitted, it is agreed that the price payable shall be the lowest prevailing market price for such Goods and/or Services, but in no case shall the price be higher than the most recent quotation from Seller (the "Price"). Seller warrants that the Price is not less favourable than those currently extended to any other customer of Seller for the same or similar goods and/or services in similar or smaller quantities and under like circumstances. In the event Seller reduces its price for such goods and/or services during the term of the Contract, Seller agrees to reduce the Price correspondingly.

3.2 Other than as expressly provided herein, no variation in the Price (whether to reflect variations in currency exchange rates, the cost of labour, materials, overheads, any other cost or expense, or otherwise) or the method of payment specified in this Contract will be accepted without the prior written approval of Company.

Company shall be entitled at any time to require deviation from, addition to, or omission of instructions or requirements for the Goods and/or Services ("Change"). If such Change shall make the Goods and/or Services more or less expensive than if performed in accordance with the original instructions or requirements, a fair and reasonable addition or deduction (agreed with Company in writing) may be made to the Price. No claim shall be allowed for any extra labour or material used by Seller in connection with a Change unless the same has been approved in writing by Company. Acceptance of payment of the Price constitutes a waiver of all claims for extra Services and/or Goods furnished.

5. PACKAGING AND DELIVERY

5.2 Without prejudice to clause 3.7, each container containing Goods must be marked or accompanied by a delivery note to show the order date, quantity, order number, contents (including code number of the Goods, where applicable), any special storage conditions, supplier's name and, subject to clause 5.6, if the Goods are being delivered by instalments, the outstanding balance of Goods remaining to be delivered. A packing sheet showing this information and any special instructions relating to the safe handling of the container shall be included in each package. Company's determination of count or weight shall be conclusive.

5.3 Without prejudice to clause 18, Seller shall, at its own expense, procure any import and/or export licence or other authorisation necessary for the delivery of the Goods to, or the performance of the Services at, the Point of Delivery, and shall provide the certificate of origin and any other documents which Company may require for the purpose of taking delivery, and evidencing ownership, of the Goods. Seller shall deliver the Goods to Company, or perform the Services, at the Point of Delivery at the Delivery Time, and, in relation to the Goods, Delivery shall take place when the Goods are unloaded ("Delivery").

5.5 The Delivery Time will be of the essence. Where any delay in Delivery can be anticipated or, in the case that Delivery is delayed, Seller must notify Company of the delay as soon as they are aware of that fact and, in any event, not fewer than 7 calendar days before the Delivery Time.

Failure to inspect within 30 calendar days after actual receipt of the Goods at the Delivery Point shall constitute a waiver of Company's rights of inspection and shall be equivalent to acceptance of the Goods. Such failure to inspect shall waive or shall procure a waiver of all moral rights in such Works to which any individual is now or may be at any future time entitled.

16.5 Seller shall promptly at Company's request do (or procure to be done) all such further acts and things and execute all such other documents as Company may from time to time require for the purpose of securing Company the full benefit of this clause 16 including all right, title and interest in and to the Intellectual Property Rights assigned to Company in accordance with this clause 16. Seller may not assign, transfer, mortgage, charge, subcontract, declare a trust over or deal in any other manner with all or any of its rights or obligations under the Contract without the prior written consent of Company. If Seller does sub-contract any of its rights or obligations under the Contract (with Company's consent), all acts and omissions of such sub-contractors shall be deemed to be the acts and omissions of Seller and Seller shall ensure that any sub-contractor complies with the obligations set out in the Contract and Seller shall remain fully liable at all times for the same.

22.2 Nothing in the Contract is intended to, or shall be deemed to, establish any partnership or joint venture between the parties, nor constitute either party the agent of the other for any purpose. Neither party shall have authority to act as agent for, or to bind, the other party in any way. 22.3 A waiver of any right or remedy under the Contract or law is only effective if given in writing and shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach or default. No failure or delay by a party to exercise any right or remedy provided under the Contract or by law shall constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor shall it prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy. No single or partial exercise of such right or remedy shall prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.

22.4 Any notice required to be given under the Contract shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally, or sent by pre-paid first-class post, recorded delivery or by commercial courier to the other party at the address stated in the Order or, where it is not stated in the Order, its usual address in relation to the Contract.

22.5 If any provision or part-provision of the Contract is or becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable, it shall be deemed modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it valid, legal and enforceable. If such modification is not possible, the relevant provision or part-provision shall be deemed deleted. Any modification to or deletion of a provision or part-provision under this clause shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the rest of the Contract.

22.6 A person who is not a party to the Contract shall not have any rights to enforce its terms.

22.7 With the exception of any amendments to these Conditions made by Company from time to time, a variation of the Contract is valid only if it is in writing and signed by a duly authorised representative of Company.

22.8 Without prejudice to clause 7, company has the right, at any time upon reasonable notice, to audit Seller in order to reasonably satisfy itself that Seller is in compliance with all of its obligations hereunder. Such audit may involve the provision of relevant documentation to Company by Seller in which instance Seller shall furnish such requested documentation within 24 hours of such request. For the avoidance of doubt, any unreasonable obstruction of such right to audit by Seller shall be considered a breach hereof and Company shall be entitled to enforce or apply all or any rights or remedies for breach contained herein or otherwise available to it for such breach.
